

This Issue

Issue 4 / Oct - Dec 2023

10

FEATURE
FIBRE REVOLUTION
CONFERENCE - A RESOUNDING SUCCESS

Find out what happened at the 2023 Fibre Revolution Conference

22

FEATURE
PREPARING FOR TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE

Shaping your workforce to take advantage

26

MARKETS
MOULDED PACKAGING SUPPORTS GREEN AGENDA

Smithers' John Nelson describes the moulded packaging innovation

14

FEATURE
RE-IMAGINING AND RE-INVENTING IN REAL TIME

David Platt reflects on a 'World café' style conversation to catalyse change

30

OPINION
THE CIRCULAR ECONOMY
RHETORIC NEEDS A REALITY CHECK

The Circular economy requires profound systemic changes

18

FEATURE
MANUFACTURING RENAISSANCE THROUGH AI?

Dr Errol Brandt tells us why change is inevitable

32

MARKETS
RECOVERED FIBRE DOMINATES IN 22/23

Tim Woods (IndustryEdge) takes a look at the fibre markets

36

ANALYSIS

GENERATING SUSTAINABLE VALUE

Jack Timings from Beca looks at trends and challenges for the wood and fibre sector

41

FEATURE

REMAINING COMPETITIVE

Investing in people and technology

44

FEATURE

FRONTLINE INNOVATORS

Spearheading the transition to the Circular economy

50

ANALYSIS

RETHINKING PACKAGING

Michael Grima describes the shift from plastic to paper in Australia

EDITORIAL

Taking control of the rollercoaster

Russell Allan, Appita Editor in Chief

3

ACROSS THE DESK

Supplier news, design and new tech

6

INTERVIEWS

Kawerau set for project rebuild in 2024

Interview with Ian Shepherd, Technical Manager of Essity, Kawerau

46

54

FEATURE

PAPER AND BOTS: AUSTRALIA'S NEW ERA IN MANUFACTURING

Dr Sue Keay describes why Australia is ready to transform.

56

FEATURE

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

How can AI improve your industrial process?