

This Issue

Issue 2 / Apr - Jun 2021

54

PERSPECTIVE
HOW TO MEET THE GLOBAL NEED FOR CARBON IN THE FUTURE

Kahler and Carus: We must move from fossil to renewable carbon sources

24

INSIGHT
4 TECHNOLOGICAL MEGATRENDS

Smithers identifies four technology megatrends for the next decade

28

PERSPECTIVE
VALMET MAKES SUSTAINABILITY CORE

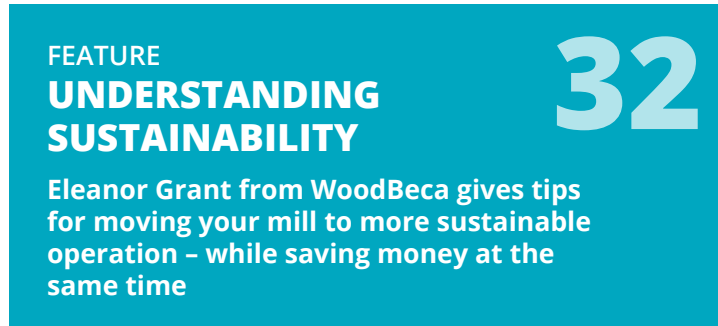

An interview with Petri Paukkunen about why Valmet takes sustainability seriously

14

INSIGHT
STRAINED BUT NOT BROKEN

Tim Woods: How global supply chains are coping

FEATURE
UNDERSTANDING SUSTAINABILITY

32

Eleanor Grant from WoodBeca gives tips for moving your mill to more sustainable operation - while saving money at the same time

18

INSIGHT
WAR ON PLASTIC

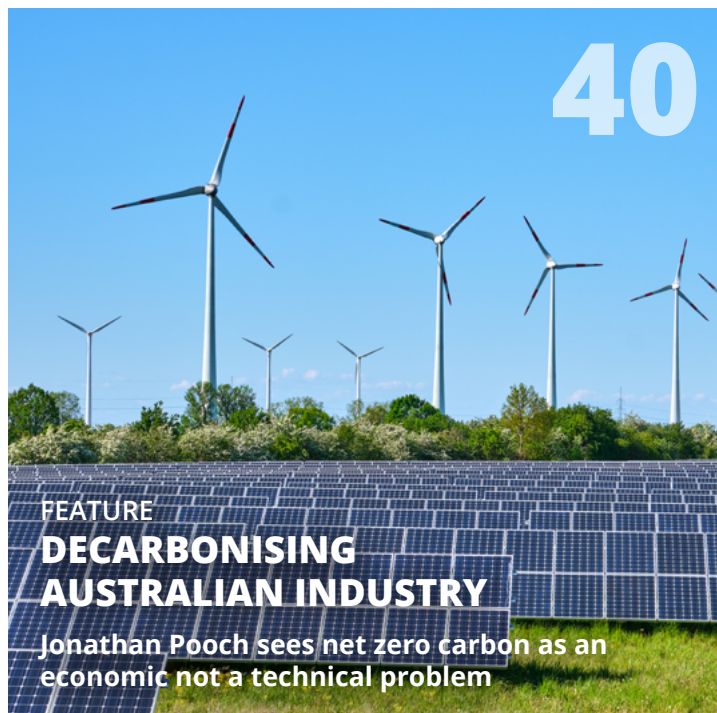

Howard Burville sees a future for plastic

36

FEATURE
COMPANIES MOVE SUSTAINABILITY TO THEIR CORE

Barbara Nebel expands the horizons of the circular economy

40

FEATURE

DECARBONISING AUSTRALIAN INDUSTRY

Jonathan Pooch sees net zero carbon as an economic not a technical problem

FEATURE

BRINGING THE CIRCULAR ECONOMY TO REALITY

David Rawlinson rethinks our products and services and how we consume them

INSIGHT

EARLY MILL CHEMISTS IN AUSTRALIA

Ann Collins takes us through a history of mill chemists in one of Australia's oldest pulp and paper companies

INSIGHT

BUILDING PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY

Richard Dore explains why you need a positive culture in the work place

EDITORIAL

The pulp, paper and plastics industry?
Russell Allan, Appita Editor in Chief

3

ACROSS THE DESK

Tissue in China, paper bottles and autumn leaves

6

NEWS ROUNDUP

News and developments from the pulp, paper, packaging and bioproduct industry

10

SUPPLIER NEWS

Valmet creates ambitious climate program

13

TECHNICAL BRIEFS

M-Clean system cleans fabrics with no trace of water
Kadant

58

Recommissioning of the Opal's EGSB reactor using anoxically stored anaerobic biomass.
Ghulam Mustafa

61