- 5 The Secretary shall keep and maintain a register of members in which shall be entered the full name, address and date of entry of the name of each member and the register shall be available for inspection by members at the address of the Public Officer.

Resignation or Expulsion of a Member

- 6 A member of the Association who has paid all moneys due and payable by him/her to the Association may resign from the Association by first giving notice in writing to the Secretary of his/her intention to resign and, upon the expiration of the period of notice, the member shall cease to be a member.
- 7 (1) Subject to these Rules, the Executive Committee may by resolution:
 - (a) expel a member from the Association; or
 - (b) suspend a member from membership of the Association for a specified period.
- (2) A resolution of the Executive Committee under sub-clause (1):

- (a) does not take effect unless the Executive Committee, at a meeting held not earlier than 14 and not later than 42 days after the service on the member of a notice under sub-clause.(3), confirms the resolution in accordance with sub-clause (3); and
 - (b) where the member exercises a right of appeal to the Association under sub-clause (3), does not take effect unless the Association confirms the resolution in accordance with sub-clause (7).
- (3) Where the Executive Committee passes a resolution under sub-clause (1), the Secretary shall, as soon as practicable, cause to be served on the member a notice in writing:
- (a) setting out the resolution of the Executive Committee and the grounds on which it is based;
 - (b) stating that the member may address the Executive Committee at a meeting to be held not earlier than 14 and not later than 42 days after service of the notice;
 - (c) stating the date, place and time of that meeting;
 - (d) informing the member that he may do one or more of the following:
 - (i) attend that meeting;
 - (ii) give to the Executive Committee before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of the resolution;
 - (iii) not later than 24 hours before the scheduled time for the meeting, lodge with the Secretary a notice to the effect that he wishes to appeal to the Association in general meeting against the resolution.
- (4) At a meeting of the Executive committee held in accordance with sub-clause (2), the Executive Committee:
- (a) shall give to the member an opportunity to be heard;
 - (b) shall give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the member; and
 - (c) shall by resolution determine whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.
- (5) Where the Secretary receives a notice under sub-clause (3) (d) (iii) he/she shall notify the Executive Committee and the Executive Committee shall convene a General Meeting of the Association to be held within 56 days after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.
- (6) At a General Meeting of the Association convened under sub-clause (5):
- (a) no business other than the question of the appeal shall be transacted;
 - (b) the Executive Committee shall place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution;
 - (c) the members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- (7) If at the General Meeting:
- (a) at least two-thirds of the members vote in person or by proxy in favour of the confirmation of the resolution, the resolution is confirmed; and
 - (b) in any other case, the resolution is revoked.

Disputes and mediation

- 8 (1) The grievance procedure set out in this Rule applies to disputes under these Rules between:
 - (a) a member and another member: or
 - (b) a member and the association.
- (2) The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.
- (3) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within 10 days, hold a meeting in the presence of a mediator.
- (4) The mediator must be:
 - (a) a person chosen by agreement between the parties; or
 - (b) in the absence of agreement :
 - (i) in the case of a dispute between a member and another member, a person appointed by the committee of the Association; or
 - (ii) in the case of a dispute between a member and the Association, a person who is a mediator appointed or employed by the Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria (Department of Justice).
- (5) A member of the Association can be a mediator.
- (6) The mediator cannot be a member who is a party to the dispute.
- (7) The parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to settle the dispute by mediation.
- (8) The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must:
 - (a) give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation process.
- (9) the mediator must not determine the dispute.
- (10) If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at Law.

Annual General Meeting

9. (1) The Association shall in each calendar year convene an Annual General Meeting of its members. Not more than 15 months shall elapse between Annual General Meetings.
- (2) The Annual General Meeting shall be held on such day as the Executive Committee determines.

- (3) The Annual General Meeting shall be specified as such in the Notice convening it.
- (4) The ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting shall be:
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding Annual General Meeting;
 - (b) to receive from the Executive Committee reports upon the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year;
 - (c) to elect the officers of the Association, the ordinary members of the Executive Committee, and the Auditor; and
 - (d) to receive and consider the statement submitted by the Association in accordance with the requirements of the Act.
- (5) The Annual General Meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these Rules.
- (6) The Annual General Meeting shall be in addition to any other general meetings that may be held in the same year.

Special General Meeting

10. All General Meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called Special General Meetings.
- 11.(1) The Executive Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a Special General Meeting of the Association.
 - (2) The Executive Committee shall, on requisition in writing of members representing not less than five per cent of the total number of voting members, convene a Special General Meeting of the Association.
 - (3) The requisition for a Special General Meeting shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by the members making the requisition and be sent to the address of the Secretary and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more of the members making the requisition.
 - (4) If the Executive Committee does not cause a Special General Meeting to be held within 56 days after the date on which the requisition is sent to the address of the Secretary, the members making the requisition, or any of them, may convene a Special General Meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.
 - (5) A Special General Meeting convened by members in pursuance of these Rules shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which those meetings are convened by the Executive Committee and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the meeting shall be refunded by the Association to the persons incurring the expenses.

Notice of Meeting

- 12 (1) The Secretary of the Association shall, at least 42 days before the date fixed for holding a General Meeting of the Association, cause to be sent to each member of the Association at his/her address appearing in the register of members, a Notice by pre-paid post stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (2) No business other than that set out in the notice convening the meeting shall be transacted at the meeting.
- (3) A member desiring to bring any business before a meeting may give notice of that business in writing to the Secretary, who shall include that business in the notice calling the next General Meeting after the receipt of the notice, excluding a General Meeting called under Clause 7 (5).

Proceedings at Meetings

- 13 (1) All business that is transacted at a Special General Meeting and all business that is transacted at the Annual General Meeting, with the exception of that specially referred to in these Rules as being the ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting, shall be deemed to be special business.
 - (2) No item of business shall be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these Rules to vote is present during the time when the meeting is considering that item.
 - (3) Twenty members personally present (being members entitled under these Rules to vote at a General Meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a General Meeting.
 - (4) If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and (unless another place is specified by the Chairman at the time of the adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members present (being not less than 10) shall be a quorum.
- 14 (1) The President, or in his/her absence, the Vice-President, shall preside as Chairman at each General Meeting of the Association.
 - (2) If the President and the Vice-President are absent from a General Meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside as Chairman at the meeting.
- 15 (1) The Chairman of a General Meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

- (2) Where a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, a like notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the General Meeting, except that 7 days' notice of the meeting may be given.
- (3) Except as provided in sub-clauses (1) and (2), it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 16 A question arising at a General Meeting of the Association shall be determined on a show of hands and, unless before or on the declaration of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, and an entry to that effect in the Minute Book of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.
- 17 (1) Upon any question arising at a General Meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.
- (2) All votes shall be given personally or by proxy.
- (3) In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the Chairman of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
- 18 (1) If at a meeting a poll on any question is demanded by not less than three members, it shall be taken at that meeting in such manner as the Chairman may direct and the resolution of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.
- (2) A poll that is demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of an adjournment shall be taken forthwith and a poll that is demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the Chairman may direct.
- 19 A member is not entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless eighty five per cent of moneys due and payable by him/her to the Association have been paid, other than the amount of the annual subscription payable in respect of the current financial year.
- 20 (1) Each member shall be entitled to appoint another member as his/her proxy by notice given to the Secretary no later than 7 days before the time of the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed.
- (2) The notice appointing the proxy shall be in the form set out in Appendix 1.

Management

The Executive Committee

- 21 (1) The affairs of the Association shall be directed by an Executive Committee consisting of the President of the Association, the Vice-President, and six other members, all of whom shall be elected by the voting members of the Association together with members appointed as set out in sub-clauses (3) and (5) .

- (2) An election shall be held annually to appoint three members to hold office for two years and to fill any casual vacancy. The members who receive the highest, second highest and third highest number of votes shall be elected for two years. Casual vacancies shall be filled for one year only in order by the members who receive the next highest numbers of votes. The President and Vice-President shall be elected for one year but shall be eligible to seek re-election for a further period of one year only.
- (3) The Immediate Past President shall be a member of the Executive Committee on that account for only the first year following his/her retirement from the Presidency, but thereafter he/she will be eligible for nomination and election as an ordinary member of the Executive Committee.
- (4) In the event that the President is elected for a second year the position of Immediate Past President shall lapse and the resultant vacancy shall be treated as a casual vacancy for that year.
- (5) The members of the Executive Committee shall hold office until their successors have been elected and installed.
- (6) The Executive Committee shall have the power to co-opt:
 - (a) members to fill vacancies occurring before the Annual General Meeting; and
 - (b) up to three additional members for such periods as it deems fit.

All co-opted members shall retire at the declaration of the poll for members of the Executive Committee.

- (7) For the purpose of these Rules the office of an ordinary member of the Executive Committee becomes vacant if the member:
 - (a) ceases to be a member of the Association; or
 - (b) becomes insolvent, mentally incapacitated within the meaning of the Companies (Vic) code; or
 - (c) resigns his/her office by notice in writing to the Secretary.

- (8) The Executive Committee:
 - (a) shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association;
 - (b) may, subject to these Rules, the regulations and the Act, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Association other than those powers and functions that are required by these Rules to be exercised by general meetings of the members of the Association; and
 - (c) subject to these Rules, the regulations and the Act, has power to perform all such acts and things as appear to the Committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association.

- 22 (1) The Secretary and Executive Director shall be appointed by the Executive Committee. Both positions may be held by the one person at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
- (2) The Executive Committee shall have the right to appoint persons to the offices of Secretary and/or Executive Director whether they are or are not members of the Association.
- (3) Unless the Secretary and the Executive Director are also elected members of the Executive Committee they shall not vote at meetings thereof.

- (4) The Executive Committee may authorize the employment of such other staff as may be required to render to all members services consistent with the attainment of the objects of the Association.
- (5) The Executive Committee is empowered to adopt bylaws for the proper governing of the affairs of the Association provided that they do not conflict with the Statement of Purposes, the Rules or the Act.
- (6) Notice of proposed changes in the bylaws shall be given to each member of the Executive Committee in the call for the meeting at which such changes are to be voted upon.
- (7) The Executive Committee is empowered to establish committees for the purpose of achieving the objects of the Association.

Sections

- 23 (1) In order to more effectively achieve the objects of the Association, Sections may be established wherever there are enough interested members to form an adequate local organization and subject to the agreement of the Executive Committee in accordance with sub-clause 2 hereof.
- (2) The formation of such Sections may be authorized by the Executive Committee upon the written petition of three or more active members of the Association residing in the territory to be embraced by the proposed Section.
- (3) Each Section shall elect its own officers, who shall be individual members of the Association or nominees of Corporate Members. The Section shall provide such Rules for its government that are not inconsistent with the Rules and Bylaws of the Association and are approved by the Executive Committee.
- (4) Each Section may receive annually, for local use, such funds as may be authorized by the Executive Committee.
- (5) The Executive Committee may at any time, for reasons that it considers proper, rescind the authorization of any Section and thus terminate its existence.

Nominations and Elections of Officers and Executive Committee

- 24 (1) At least 56 days before the date set for the election of the President, Vice-President and elected members of the Executive Committee, which election date shall be at least two weeks before the day of the Annual General Meeting, the Secretary shall notify all voting members by circular letter of the calling for nominations and of the day set for the election.
- (2) Nominations for President, Vice-President and elected members of the Executive Committee shall be made in writing to the Secretary by a proposer and seconder and such nomination paper shall also be signed by the nominee.
- (3) Nominations must be in the hands of the Secretary 35 days before the date set for the election.

- (4) The election shall be by postal ballot.
- (5) An official ballot paper shall be issued to the voting members not later than three weeks before the date of the election which ballot paper shall be accompanied by a list of the nominations made according to the provisions of this article.
- (6) With each ballot paper, suitable envelopes shall be enclosed, together with instructions for voting as follows:

"The ballot shall be sealed separately in a special ballot envelope on which must appear the signature of the member voting. All ballot envelopes not accompanied by such validating signature on the outer envelope shall be rejected."

- 25 (1) A Returning Officer, together with two other Members, all three of whom shall be appointed by, but not from, the Executive Committee, shall count the votes and notify the Secretary of the result.
- (2) A simple majority of votes cast shall determine the election. In the event of a tie, the election shall be decided by vote of the Executive Committee.

Proceedings of Executive Committee

- 26 (1) The Executive Committee shall meet at least three times in each year at such place and such time as the Committee may determine.
- (2) Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be convened by the President or by any five of the members of the Committee.
- (3) Notice shall be given to members of the Executive Committee of any special meeting specifying the general nature of the business to be transacted and no other business shall be transacted at such a meeting.
- (4) Any five members of the Executive Committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the Committee.
- (5) No business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present and, if within an hour of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned unless the meeting was a special meeting, in which case it shall lapse.
- (6) At meetings of the Executive Committee:
 - (a) the President, or in his/her absence the Vice-President, shall preside; or
 - (b) if the President and Vice-President are absent such one of the remaining members of the Executive Committee as may be chosen by the members shall preside.
- (7) Questions arising at a meeting of the Executive Committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the Executive Committee shall be determined on a show of hands or, if demanded by a member, by a poll taken in such manner as the person presiding at the meeting may determine.

- (8) Each committee or sub-committee member present at a meeting of the Executive Committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the Executive Committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote and, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.
- (9) Written notice of each Executive Committee meeting shall be served on each member of the Executive Committee by delivering it to the member at a reasonable time before the meeting or by sending it by pre-paid post or by electronic means addressed to the member at his/her address shown in the Register of Members at least two business days before the date of the meeting.
- (10) Subject to sub-clause (4) the Executive Committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy on the Executive Committee.

Secretary

- 27 The Secretary of the Association shall keep minutes of the resolutions and proceedings of each General Meeting and each Executive Committee meeting in books provided for that purpose, together with a record of the names of persons present at Executive Committee Meetings.

Executive Director

- 28 (1) The Executive Director of the Association:
 - (a) shall collect and receive all moneys due to the Association and make all payments authorized by the Association; and
 - (b) shall keep correct accounts and books showing the financial affairs of the Association with full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the Association.
- (2) The accounts and books referred to in sub-clause (1) shall be available for inspection by members.

Removal of Member of Executive Committee

- 29 (1) The Association in General Meeting may, by resolution, remove any member of the Executive Committee before the expiration of his/her term of office and appoint another member in his/her stead to hold office until the expiration of the term of the first-mentioned member.
- (2) Where the member to whom a proposed resolution referred to in sub-clause (1) makes representations in writing to the Secretary or President of the Association (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that they be notified to the members of the Association the secretary or the President may send a copy of the representations to each member of the Association or, if they are not so sent, the member may require that they be read out at the meeting.

Cheques

- 30 All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by members or employees of the Association who shall be authorized to so act at a meeting of the Executive Committee.

Seal

- 31 (1) The Common Seal of the Association shall be kept in the custody of the Executive Director.
- (2) The Common Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Executive Committee and the affixing of the Common Seal shall be attested by the signatures either of two members of the Executive Committee or of one member of the Executive Committee and of the Public Officer of the Association.

Alteration of Rules and Statement of Purposes

- 32 These Rules and the Statement of Purposes of the Association shall not be altered except by special resolution as defined in the Act and passed by at least three-fourths of voting members voting in person or by proxy at a General Meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution was given in accordance with these Rules and the requirements of the Act, except that no change shall be made to Rule 34.

Notices

- 33 (1) A notice may be served by or on behalf of the Association upon any member either personally or by sending it by post or by electronic means to the member at his/her address shown in the Register of Members.
- (2) Where a document is properly addressed, pre-paid and posted to a person as a letter, the document shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been given to the person at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Dissolution

- 34 (1) If at any duly constituted Meeting of the Association a special resolution for the dissolution of the Association shall be passed, the Executive Committee shall forthwith proceed to realize the property of the Association and after the discharge of all liabilities shall pay the proceeds of such realization to such other society or association as shall in the opinion of the Executive Committee have objects similar to or most nearly similar to the objects of the Association.
- (2) No member of the Association shall be entitled to receive any money or other profit or gain from the proceeds of such realization.

Custody of Records

- 35 All books, documents and securities of the Association, except as otherwise provided in these Rules, shall be kept in the custody or under the control of the Executive Director.

Funds

- 36 The funds of the Association shall be derived from entrance fees, annual subscriptions, donations and such other sources as the Executive Committee determines. Each Section established under sub-clause 23 (1) shall administer the funds and assets of the Section in accordance with the Section's Rules.
