

This Issue

Issue 3 / Jul - Sep 2026

12

FEATURE
THE KNOWLEDGE CRISIS WE DON'T TALK ABOUT
Losing knowledge we can't easily write down

22

FEATURE
THE FUTURE OF CELLULOSE BASED PACKAGING
Innovative thinking leads to expanded cellulose applications

16

FEATURE
IS OUR REGION WATCHING?
Adele Invaso discusses how far AI can go in the Pulp and Paper Industry

26

FEATURE
PACKAGING EPR WON'T WORK UNTIL AUSTRALIA HARMONISES ITS RECYCLING SYSTEM
Lack of mandatory national EPR regulation disappoints

30

FEATURE
THE FUTURE OF FIBRE PACKAGING
What else needs to happen for fibre to rule the world?

34

MARKETS
MAPPING A PATH TO RENEWABLE PROCESS HEAT
An early look at Appita's Renewable Process Heat Study

38

SUPPLIER
NEW ZEALAND'S BEING PRICED OUT OF ITS OWN POWER GRID
Can New Zealand deliver affordable, reliable energy for the pulp and paper industry?

50

SUPPLIER
VALMET'S NEW R&D PROGRAM INDUSTRIAL NEXUS
Advancing industrial renewal through an ecosystem focused on digital technologies and operating models

EDITORIAL

Fibre Has Its Work Cut Out
Russell Allan, Appita Editor in Chief

3

ACROSS THE DESK

Supplier news, design and new tech

6

INTERVIEWS

What will shape fibre-based food packaging to 2045?
Appita interviews Rob Outram about the outlook for fibre-based food packaging

20

A New Opportunity for New Zealand's Bioeconomy
Appita's Peter Minten interviews Alankar Vaidya about the road from pulp and paper to biorefineries

44

52

SUPPLIER
JINGXING PAPER INVEST IN MALAYSIAN FACILITY
New facility generates high quality wet process recycled AOCC pulp